

Deputy Grand Matron Visits OES Chapter

Mrs. Ethel Dowling, deputy grand matron of the 76th District of the Grand Chapter, State of California, made her official visit to the Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, recently.

All officers, in white gowns, filled their stations and the Deputy Grand Matron was given special escort. She was presented with a jewel box and orchids. This was the emblem of 1958, the year Mrs. Dowling served as worthy matron. The carrying piece was made by Florence Vielenave, past matron of Torrance. Escorted to the East, she was given grand honors.

Escorted to the East and presented were 17 past matrons and patrons of the Torrance chapter as well as past matrons and patrons of this and other grand jurisdictions.

Jo Mae Ratliff was initiated for her approval with Verlan Cobb as courtesy candidate.

Mrs. Dowling spoke, congratulating the chapter on the initiation and the officers on their work.

Marguerite Morgan, past matron, was chairman for the evening.

Handmade jewel boxes decorated each table and the conch shells, emblem of 1968, were lighted and used as decorations.

Francis Reisert served as chairman of the refreshment committee. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ratliff, worthy patron and matron, presided.
